Reimbursement to the hospital (and the patient's financial responsibility) will also vary based on the term of any insurance coverage, contractual reimbursement rates, deductible, copay, and coinsurance.

The above 2016 charge estimates are based on rates as of 07/01/2016. Charges for specific patients will depend on many factors including the physician, the condition of the patient, unexpected complications, or additional procedures required. These charges are to be considered estimates only and are not a guarantee of final costs. These are hospital charges only except where indicated. Other fees and charges are not included such as surgeon or other physician fees, radiologist, and other non-facility fees.
